EXPLANATORY FOOTNOTES FOR MANUSCRIPT REVIEW AND APPROVAL SHEET

¹Reports listing more than four authors should be accompanied by an explanatory note. (See "Authorship" section in Suggestions to Authors.)

²Use abbreviations shown in USGS telephone directories.

³A mail stop and extension number will suffice for authors at the same center with the servicing PG. Out-of-town authors please note whether phone number is FTS or commercial.

⁴Former footnote no longer applies.

⁵For USGS publications, show SERIES (Professional Paper, Geologic Quadrangle Map, etc.) and, if applicable, show SUBSERIES (Contributions to Geochemistry, etc.). Show SCALE for maps.

For journal reports, show name of journal.

For chapters in books not published by USGS, show book title, publisher, and volume editor.

For abstracts and other reports prepared for meetings, show sponsoring organization and name, date, and place of meeting.

For other types of reports, explain the form of publication as well as possible.

⁶The PG's give priority treatment to reports with reasonable, legitimate deadlines. Except for abstracts and "no edit" outside reports, manuscripts that have deadlines should be accompanied by a memo from the author's chief scientist requesting priority. "Deadline" shown here should be date by which author must have report back to meet publisher's deadline.

⁷If report was unnumbered, show year of release in parentheses.

⁸Information required only for in-house USGS publications. May include computers not specifically designated as "word processors"; please show both the type of computer and the wp program used in such cases. If no word processor was used, enter "None."

⁹Generally, a full signature denotes approval. Initials mean only that the report has been seen.
